WORKSHOP

Citizenship and e-activism 2.0.
Images, discourses and practices of ICTs among/for Roma

Monday 29 June 2015
9.30 - 5.30 pm

Sciences Po, Room H202B
28, rue des Saints-Pères, 75007 Paris

9.30 - 10 am: Welcome, coffee

10 am: Introduction of the workshop
Alfredo Alietti, Ismu and University of Ferrara & Martin Olivera, Rue et Cité and Université de Paris 8

10.15 – 12 am: 1st session – "Inclusion", self-representations and exo-images

Moderator: Grégoire Cousin, FMSH, Urba Rom

"Mapping the Romani presence on the net in Poland"
Marta Szczepanik, Agnieszka Mikulska, Helsinki Foundation, Warsaw

"Tigani and stereotypes in mass medias in Romania"
Jonathan Larcher, EHESS

"Radio Romani Mahala: Romani identities and languages in a virtual space"
Daniele Viktor Leggio, University of Manchester

12 - 1.30 Lunch

1.30 – 4.15 pm: 2nd session – ICTs uses among Roma and citizenship: pitfalls and benefits

Moderator: Dana Diminescu, Ecole ParisTech

"Actions among Roma in Milano with ICTs"
Upre Roma, Milano

"Uses and roles of ICT in transnational mobilities among Bulgarian Roma migrants in France"
Alexandra Clavé Mercier, University of Bordeaux

"The uses of ICT among 3 Roma housing projects in Seine-Saint-Denis"
Adriana Giurea & Clémence Lormier, Association Rues et Cités, Montreuil

"We, we are citizens of Lecce and Italy. Exclusion, participation political claim-making of Salento Xoraxané community"
Antonio Ciniero, University of Salento

4.30 pm: Final discussion and conclusion
Tommaso Vitale, Sciences Po, CEE, Urba Rom

Workshop organised in collaboration with the Project RONEPP (Roma Nertworks and Political Participation)

Free entrance according to available places - Contact: tommaso.vitale@sciencespo.fr