

Seminars organized by UTARTU

1. Seminar 1: New immigrants, workplace diversity and first adaptation

A seminar for 6 participants took place in Tallinn University and discussed the issues related to first adaptation of immigrants and the integration at multicultural workplaces.

2. Seminar 2: New immigrant, workplace diversity and opportunities for TCNs

A seminar for 6 participants took place in Tallinn University and focussed more explicitly to the integration of third country nationals on Estonian labour market.

3. Seminar 3: New immigrants, integration and multicultural workplaces

A seminar for 6 participants took place in Nava College and discussed about the prospects of integration and multiculturalism at workplaces.

UTARTU team member Kristina Kallas carried out the seminars.